LETTER

Sir:

This is in response to the Notice of Incomplete NonProvisional Application (copy enclosed) mailed 6/25/01 and received yesterday, and to today's telephone call made by the undersigned to the Customer Service Center that advised inter alia that Sadie was a contract employee no longer there, in the above identified application. The Notice states: "The specification is missing."

Applicant requests reconsideration.

The application is a continuation-in-part application filed according to the provisions which had been set forth in 37 CFR 1.62(e). It set forth that a continuation-in-part application will utilize the file wrapper of the prior application; that changes to the prior application must be made in the form of an amendment to the prior application; and that no copy of the prior or new application is required.

Applicant filed a Preliminary Amendment (copy enclosed) dated April 30, 2001, with the new application. The Preliminary Amendment amends in the new paragraph form.

Accordingly, applicant submits that "A complete specification as prescribed by 35 U.S.C. 112" was filed as required; and that the Notice of Incomplete NonProvisional Application should be withdrawn.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph B. Taphorn
